Hidden Treasures of the Heart

“Let the talkers talk,
let the praters prate,
But the silence of the desert remains most potent
To bring to light again
the sacred treasures...
But above all,
those hidden treasures of the heart...”
~Murshid Samuel Lewis~“Saladin”

Come for the first time or return once again, to embrace joy, love, peace and beauty, within our hearts and the one heart that unites us all. We will dive into the legacy of Murshid Samuel Lewis (and more), who urged us to embody these qualities, as we dance, pray, eat and live in community for another precious week.
