Class Descriptions

MORNING CLASS: 11 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.

Pathways of the Heart and Soul: Main Tent Majida Nelson
Enneagram of Personality and Walking Practices

Each session of this class will focus on exploring human personality through the dynamics of the enneagram of personality, its effect on our relationships with others and on individual clarity of purpose. Through the astrological walks and elemental walks taught by Murshid Samuel L. Lewis, we will explore our personal view point that frames human relationships with others and ourselves

FIRST AFTERNOON CLASS: 3-4:15 p.m.

Embodied Practice - Center. Intention. Surrender. The Upper Room Kalama Reuter

This class will draw on Mevlevi inspiration and has a physical component. All are welcome to explore this way of letting go of the focus on the world and drawing closer to the Source.

Treasure Tales Forest Amphitheater Basira Beardsworth

Explore some of the history of the Ruhaniat lineage through storytelling and practice. Passed down from hand to hand and heart to heart through the ages, the Ruhaniat has a rich inheritance of transmission from Sufi, Hindu, Buddhist and other wisdom traditions.

SECOND AFTERNOON CLASS: 4:30-5:45 p.m.

Zikr Class in the Style of Ishaq The Upper Room Ahura Grace Henke

Mostly seated Zikr class with a few surprises.

Community Choir The Barn Zahir Karuna Moree & Chela Sloper

In this shared work around singing and the experience of singing, it is not at all cliché to say we want our singing class to be a time of great joy, ease with one another, and experiencing the many ways that singing enhances our lives.
